

Catholic Schools Week at PCMS

Monday January 31st - Wear your crazy socks Day (Make a statement for your life's foundation and stay warm.)

Tuesday February 1st - Hats and Slippers Day! (Remember to be respectful of larger sizes hats so as to not distract your classmates from seeing around the classroom. You must bring slippers to school to be worn inside only.)

Wednesday February 2nd - Liturgy and Dress up for Jesus (You can wear something beautiful to show your maturity) AND Bake Sale! (Lunchtime treats to buy.)

Thursday February 3rd - Favorite College Sweatshirt and Sweatpants (This can help you prepare for your bright future!)

Friday February 4th - Ultimate spirit day. (You can wear as many Pacelli logo items as you can. Celebrate our Family!)

● Each Homeroom will report their participation percentage to the office each day.
Winning Homeroom with the most participation percent over the whole week will receive a treat!*

Decorate your homeroom Door contest! (Due Friday Jan. 28th)

Rules:

- Choose one door to decorate per homeroom.
- Your theme should be Catholic School Week related.
- Tape and paper only no staples or push pins used on wood.
- Must not obstruct the window for viewing
- Must be operational for entrance and exits.
- Judging will be based on originality, connectedness to theme, neatness and how it represents your homeroom.
- Specialist teachers / staff will judge. No homeroom teachers will be judges.
- Encourage students to do the work and all should participate in some way.

*One winning homeroom will receive an Ice Cream Sundae Party!

Scavenger hunt for each homeroom to complete. A sign up sheet for homeroom runners will be sent out. A google meet will be set for Friday, Feb 4th at 1:30pm. It will ask questions and play music with challenges in between. Teachers will be judges of appropriate teamwork and submitting answers on a document.

*One winning homeroom will receive an extra comfy day!
